*Subject: The End
To: Class of 2004
From: The Yearbook Staff*

HHSsuprfn: We can congratulate ourselves on a job well done. The odds were against us, but we made it through the trials & tribulations of high school.

ProHatOrg: We've worked hard for the ultimate redemption: graduation.

HHSsuprfn: There's so much we will never forget about our days @ good old HHS
And there isn't a price that can be paid for the memories we have.

ProHatOrg: It went by wicked fast...

ProHatOrg: *fast

HHSsuprfn: And maybe there were moments where u should have studied harder, or had a better work ethic, or gone to class on time, or maybe gone at all all...but hey, who's perfect?

ProHatOrg: And we don't regret a thing.

HHSsuprfn: Because what we will remember the most will be the fun times- the wild dances, the Friday shows, the memorable game against that rival team (who shall remain nameless; coughduxburycough), late night drama rehearsals, and those assemblies where we were forced to entertain ourselves...

ProHatOrg: but hey, at least they got u outta class.

HHSsuprfn: lol. So we give you ur yearbook, a hardcover phenomenon that will go down in history...

ProHatOrg: Because it's ours.

HHSsuprfn: and we've earned it.

ProHatOrg: When u look back @ that old friend of yours, maybe u should give him or her a call, or write a letter...

HHSsuprfn: or send them an email. This is, after all, my friends, the age of communication.

ProHatOrg: No reason not to keep in touch! Ttyl!

The Hingham Cross Country Team had a rough season as they struggled to recover from the departure of last year's seniors, who made up more than half of the team. This year's seniors had the honor of leaving Hingham high School with their coach, Dr. Joe Ryan, who retired after 34 years of coaching track and cross country. The Cross Country runners will never forget the annual sleepover, swimming at World's End, and of course, Cow Path and The Big Hill. They will also never forget such memorable lines such as, "gone surfing," "Stuck in a tree," and "that was OUR race."

The Girls' Cross Country finished as tri-league champs and had more runners than ever before with 45 girls running on the team this year. The team was a leader in the league from the beginning, with its large numbers, many new strong runners and team spirit, which allowed the girls to excel and finish with a record of 5-1-0. Frequent trips to Springs, sound leadership provided by captains Caitlin LeBlanc and Cheryl Flynn and strong coaching by Coach Ryan and Buzz allowed the team to become familiar with success. The girls beat rivals Rockland and Scituate, and not only came out of their season as tri-league champs but also gained the Patriot League Team Sportsmanship Award.

Field hockey had another great season this year, lead by captains Katie Whitney and Chrissie Nims. Under the fabulous coaching staff of Ms. Gordon and Ms. Bonner, the field hockey girls showed the league that they were a force to be reckoned with when they beat Hanover, a long-time rival, and qualified for tournament. The team was built on a solid foundation of senior players. Jeanette Pollara was the leading scorer for the team, and Chrissie Nims did an incredible job defending the net. Diana Trebino and Alli O'Leary were always consistent and dependable midfielders. Katie Whitney also played a key role on the team. The girls had a great time this year and did very well.

Football

▲ Objects are closer than they appear.

Everyone was talking about the 2003 Football team this year. Their record was 10-1, a feat that hadn't been accomplished in decades. Lead by captains Kevin Devine, Steve Lyons and Alex O'Keefe, the team was run into the ground, by coaches Paul Killinger, Jim Langill, Jeff Perkins, Charles Sorrento and Dave Jewett. A big accomplishment for the HHS football team was beating a rival, Scituate, on Thanksgiving day with a score of 35-27. The Hingham High School football team was a force to be reckoned with.

Nick Fee was a key member of the team and was named Mariner All Scholastic, along with Ryan Collins who was named both the Mariner All Scholastic as well as the Globe All Scholastic. Other essential members to the team were captain John Foley, and seniors Mike MacCune who had a hole in one on the seventh hole at Rockland Golf Club, and Chris Conner who had a hole in one on the eighth hole at the South Shore Country Club. Boys' Soccer

With an impressive record of 16-2-2, the 2003 Hingham Harbormen Boys Soccer Team was one to remember. Under the leadership of Coach Ken Carlin, the boys won the Patriot League Title and advanced to the second round of the state tournament. Senior captains Chris Bierbaum, Justin Flanagan, and Brennan Lincoln, along with Cole Parker, really helped the team work together to win so many games and progress so far. Parallel feet

The 2003-2004 boys' basketball team was one of the most athletic teams around. With strong inside presence and solid perimeter play, the Harbormen were a tough match-up throughout the entire season. Unfortunately, the Patriot League was extremely competitive this year, and Hingham lost several close games to some of the best teams on the South Shore. However, the Harbormen were fierce competitors until the end, earning the much-deserved respect that they had worked so hard for. The 2003-2004 Harbormen set a standard for Hingham basketball for years to come, by demonstrating what it truly means to be relentless. Jeremy Weisberg, Paul Lyons, Shane Campbell, and Jeff McLean worked year-round at improving their basketball skills; their hard work paid off. With the addition of Chris Bierbaum, the five seniors lead the Harbormen to an impressive season. Their presence on and off the court will be greatly missed, and their tremendous dedication to the basketball program won't go overlooked.

Girls' Basketball

The girls' Basketball team had very good team chemistry in the 2003-2004 season. The two seniors on the team, Katie Boutilier and captain Heather Boles lead the team in points and assists. The varsity team was dominated by younger players, and as the season progressed the team became more experienced and thus more successful. In one of their best games of the season, the girls beat Quincy after being down by 19 points at halftime. The girls came out of the season with fast friendships and fond memories of games and practices.

Gymnastics

The Gymnastics team had the best record it has had in years! They finished in second place in their league, and had wonderful chemistry making it a really fun season. Coached on by Jayne Schlieff, captains Katie Donovan and Erin Leary led the team to a 7-3 record, with help from seniors Sarah Rathnam and Christie Clarke. Underclassmen Hope Rathnam, Kelly Ryan, Jenny Kelly, and Alicia Lynch also contributed to the strong effort of the team. Despite the disadvantage of being a small group, the girls were hard working and positive, so their team unity resounded through the gym. The Hingham girls swept away victories against Duxbury, Carver, Randolph and Milton. Whether turning cartwheels, flying over the vault, swinging from the uneven bars, leaking information to the CIA, or balancing on the beam, the 2004 Gymnastics team was an unstoppable power house.

Hockey

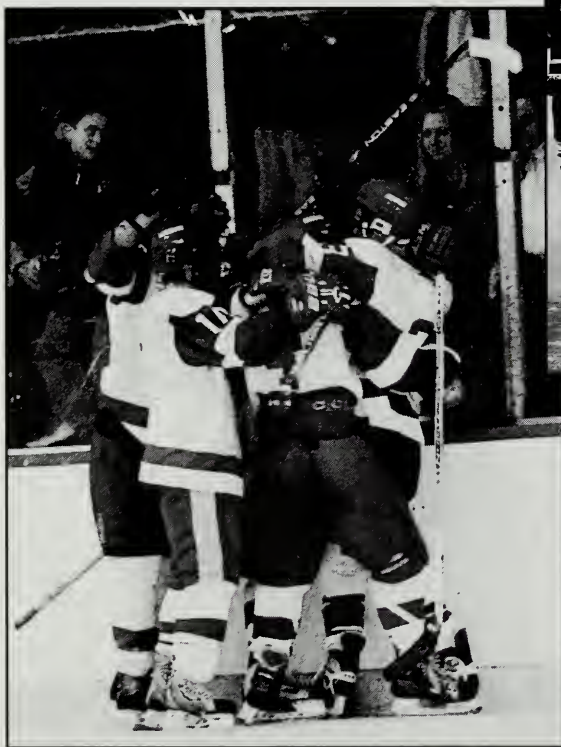

The Hingham High School hockey team had an extremely exciting and competitive season. The players all became the best of friends and learned very early on in the season that their combined skills allowed them to develop strength as a team. The team was characterized by many exciting and emotional wins. Captains Bryan Wilbur, Alex Olson, Mike Genovese and Brian Collins all provided great leadership and hard work to the team. Key forwards throughout the year were Alex Olson, Bryan Wilbur and Mike Genovese. Kevin Devine provided strong defense and steadfast goal keeper Tommy Curtis was always reliable. Fast and physical play characterized the 2003-2004 season. With enormous depth and constant pressure on their opponents, the team came together even further as the season went on. As Bryan Wilbur said, "It was an honor to be on a team with such a proud and outstanding group of men." With their advantages of depth, passion, pride and skill, HHS Hockey had yet another great season.

Ski Team

Hingham Ski Team's '03-'04 season was a great success. The boys secured 3rd in their division in the Ski League East, while the girls team took 2nd place, qualifying for States. Adding to the success, the girls team won the A.J. McEachern trophy for the first time since 1999. Hingham was well represented at the Winter Bay State Games, sending five boys and six girls. The team's major rivals Notre Dame, B.C. High and Natick were able to top the Hingham team. This winter, skiers endured frigid temperatures in their GS suits while awaiting slalom races at Blue Hills and attending weekaend races at Ragged Mountain. Coaches Mike Ryan and Kim Doble combination of enthusiasm racing skills and commitment resulted in unmatched coaching support. Captains Doug Randall and Suzy Barker, senior Catie Peterson, juniors Emily Doble, Heather Manning, Alexis Dale, Dan Clarke and Scott Dresser, and underclassmen P.J. Boys' Track ▼ Phelan, Feeley and George goof off between sprints.

The Hingham Boy's Winter Track Team finished the season with a respectable 3-3. Senior captains Shaun Feeley and Kyle Morse dominated the high jump and shot put all season. Paul Bottone made a hefty contribution to the distance portion of the team. Unexpected, consistent points came from freshman Gaston Kelly in middle distance and junior Ian Kirk in distance. The high-scorer for the season was sophomore Pat Phelan, who ran middle distance. The team also put together a group of talented shot putters that are a consistent source of points for Hingham in the Patriot League and competitive all across the state. Kyle Morse, junior Tom Cushing, and freshman Jason MacDonald took 3rd and the State Class Meets and 5th in the MacIntyre Elite State Relays.

Girls' Track

It was another successful season for the girl's winter track team lead by captains Sheena Marquis, Cheryl Flynn, Natalie Kimborowicz and senior Alli O'Leary. With the enthusiastic coaching of Ms. Kates and intense sideline cheering, the team completed a successful 4-2 season. State qualifiers include J-Train, the Marquis distance duo, Liz Connor, Christie Lumbert, Jenny Ingersoll, Ashley Mills and Sam Lussier as well as Flynn and O'Leary. Never forget: Dance parties on the bus, "Like a Prayer", the Norwell boys replacing EB, hardcore eight minute abs, pasta dinners, and *bucks excursions.

Wrestling

HHS had a young team this year, and only five wrestlers on the team had more than two years experience. Seniors Mike Finneran, Alex O'Keefe, Dan Vilane, and Brennan Lincoln have done an excellent job at tournaments. Finneran, O'Keefe, and Lincoln placed first, second and fourth, respectively at Belmont and Dan Vilane placed second at Cohasset. Coached on by Mr. Durham, Mr. Cannif, Mr. Bertie and Mr. Daly, they look forward to defending their sectional title from last year and hope to place many wrestlers in the State Competition.

Biology Club

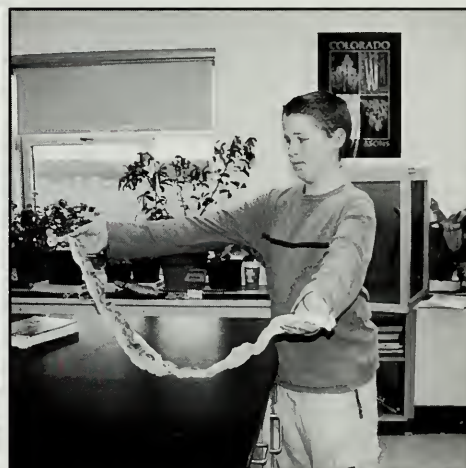

▼ Peeka-Boo!

One day, Peeves the iguana fell off a log. This happens a lot. And thus our story continues. Once again, Biology Club has had a fun and productive year. At various times this year the room has hosted chickens, canaries, frogs, geckos, praying mantises, geraniums, bromeliads, other tropical plants, an asparagus fern, fish and mimosa as well as our pet, Peeves. We have investigated animal tracks and nature photography in addition to our usual activities of feeding the fish and watering the plants. The hope of bringing biology trivia into the ranks of competitive sports inspired the Biology Club and other interested students to participate in the Bio Olympiad in late January.

Spanish

Throughout the year, Spanish Club has taught its members about the rich culture of Spain. This year has included numerous fundraisers for a trip to Spain in 2005. Some activities include selling candy on "Día de los Muertos," a raffle for Valentines Day, and a dinner party with traditional Spanish dishes.

Math Team

“Winning record” and “Hingham Athletics” are terms rarely found in the same sentence. Until this year, that is! This year’s math team, thanks to a loaded roster headed by captains Ally Haas, Steve Jantzen and Paul D. Bottone, dominated the division. It must be thanks to the new cheer, “e-to-the-x-dy-dx- e-to-the-x-dx! Cosine-secant-tangent-sine-3.14159 e-i-radical- pi! Fight-‘em-fight-‘em-Hingham-High!”

Book Club

Being tired of belonging to a club which has previously vacillated in and out of existence, members decided that this year book club must exist! After months of sporadic planning they met for the first time in January to discuss Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone (or Philosopher's if you happen to be feeling British.) It has been a year of good books and good discussions.

National Honor Society

This year's NHS constituents have been hard at work serving both the institution of learning and the hamlet. They have been working closely with the Hingham Interfaith Food Pantry, sorting food and soldering packages for patrons. In conjunction with the rest of HHS, officiated an extremely successful non-parishable foods drive for the pantry this autumn. NHS has also been dynamically involved with the Hingham Public Library. During the summer months, members enlisted in the leadership of Pajama Story Hour, reading to and amusing the younger generations. They also composed an appreciation luncheon to commend the media personnel for their excellent services to the student community. NHS is lead by Katie Donovan (President), Adam Traina (Vice-President), Ketan Gajria (Secretary), and Doug Randall (Treasurer), and advised by Ms. Perelman.

After lunch the guys take a bus to their work station where they learn about the finer points of wood working and metal working while gaining a sense of the real world experience. The 2003-2004 class this year included seniors Jared Henley, Brian McIntyre, and Geoff Gill. The large group went to work on projects such as book shelves, lawn chairs, coffee tables, basketball hoops, and even a go cart. Vroom Vroom.

Service Groups

Golden Key Society

What can be said about the Great Golden Key Society? An established institution at Hingham High, the Golden Key Society picked up after all three lunches. The group was a force to be reckoned with, as they educated the students of Hingham on the proper points of how to: 1) pick up your trash and 2) put it in the proper bags. Job well done, team!

SADD

Students Against Destructive Decisions

▼ Katelyn is quite the paradox: glad at SADD.

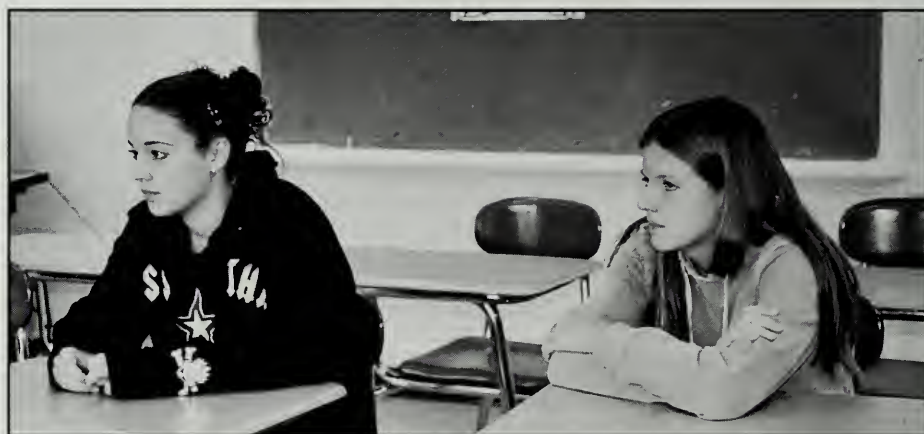

Allison contemplates the consequences of poor decisions. ▼

Throughout the year SADD (Students Against Destructive Decisions) has been working to promote the theme "Think about it" to the students of Hingham High School. Led by presidents Katelyn Carbone and Allison Mayer, the club has tackled many projects in the last few years. Last year, SADD worked with the town to produce the Mock Accident. This year, the club is working to promote SADD's cause along with starting a pledge to "Take Away the Keys".

Habitat for Humanity

Habitat for Humanity, founded by Danielle Pastuszack and Sheena Marquis, has three goals: fundraising, educating the community and helping to build homes for deserving families. With the help of Mrs. Duffy and Mrs. Marcks, this year was off to a good start! The large turnout of underclassmen indicates that the HHS Habitat chapter is sure to continue.

Volunteer Club

The Volunteer Club is an organization dedicated to serving the community. Lead by advisor Kara Roth, members involve themselves in visiting the elderly, taking part in bottle and can drives, and beginning new service projects. Senior Paul Bottone is in charge of coordinating events with Cohasset Knoll Nursing Home while juniors Carolyn Jefferies and Brittany McBane work with Cardinal Cushing and the Mary Martha Learning Center to set up various functions. In addition, junior Leah Larned heads Project Blue Pack in order to raise money for children in Afghanistan. Finally, the president, senior Emily Amrhein, works to oversee all club activities. The past year has been very successful for all the volunteers. The intense Bingo games each Friday afternoon as well as the caroling at Christmas time stand out among other events. As a group, the club members have grown close to those they have come in contact with and will continue to work to improve the community.

SEA

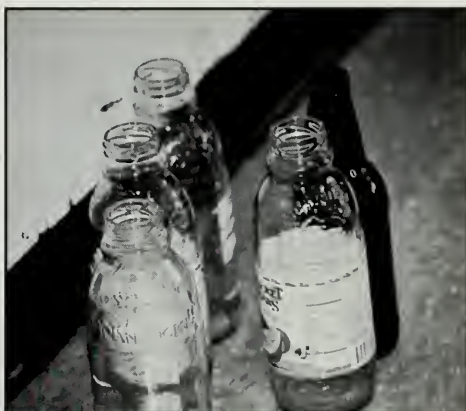

S.E.A. (Students for Environmental Action) is a club for students who are committed to recycling the school's paper, bottles, and cans. This is accomplished by supplying green boxes to each classroom in order to facilitate the recycling of paper products. Periodically, the students collect the contents of these boxes to bring to the dump. In addition, each Thursday members meet at the cafeteria to sort through the glass and plastic bottles as well as redeemable and non redeemable cans. These, too, are brought to the dump for recycling. This dedicated group includes Ms. Case, our school librarian, seniors Riane Herlihy, Jackie Cartier, and Nicole Larned as well as juniors Leah Larned and Nathan Cassiani.

Student Relations

How to Relate...

GSA

Since the Gay-Straight Alliance (GSA) was founded at HHS in 1998, it has enjoyed a growing presence within the community due to increased membership, and subsequently, visibility and influence. The club spread a message of tolerance, unity and respect as they attended the 10th Anniversary Forum hosted by the Governor's Commission of Gay and Lesbian youth, held monthly movie nights, represented the Hingham chapter in the Youth Pride March in Boston and BAGLY Prom in Boston City Hall and even sponsored the nonprofit organization SpeakOut. GSA Advisor, Mr. Lalli and coordinators Jennifer Brady, Mary Sullivan, Nathan Cassiani and Leah Larned thank everyone for their support and anticipate a bright future for the club.

Intergenerational Club

The Intergeneration Club is made up of students and senior citizens who work together on projects for others. The club has organized a winter coat and blanket drive for the poor and homeless, a fall conference on Identity Theft and how to protect oneself from scams, con games, fraud, and rip-offs. Members also will visit the Brockton VA Hospital and serve the Senior Citizens at the Senior Center in the spring. Participants raked leaves, helped out at an animal shelter and have been involved in many worthwhile projects.

Model UN

◀ Cadence and Caroline flash their most diplomatic smiles.

The Model United Nations club provides students with a chance to debate current issues facing the UN and try to find a resolution. This year at the Harvard Model United Nations, HHS represented two countries: Micronesia and the Solomon Islands. Led by Mr. Kirkcaldy, the club spent Thursday through Sunday at the Park Plaza in Boston, attending meetings at the hotel and at Harvard. Presidents Amy Long, Cadence Willse, and Liz Brennan are also taking the club to New York City for a visit to the actual UN.

Student Government

The student council is involved in a wide variety of activities. Each subcommittee faces their own responsibilities. Appreciation, led by President Julie Guerra, is involved in teacher and quote of the month. Vice-President Suzy Barker leads the fundraising committee, which earns money from raffles, the candy cane sale, and Crush cans. The community service group, handled by Secretary Emily Amrhein, unites the council with the South Shore through various organizations such as Cohasset Knoll, Handi-Kids, Christmas in the City, Relay for Life, Cardinal Cushing, and walks for breast cancer, hunger, and hospice. Kelly McGreevy, treasurer, heads the spirit committee in pep-rallies, spirit week and holiday decorations. As a whole, the student council prepares the Lip Synch and Mr. Hingham High. Throughout the year, members attend three conferences: SEMASC (fall and spring), and the weekend long MASC conference.

AFS American Field Service

The HHS American Field Service Club has long focused on getting to know different cultures, both domestic and international. Members have welcomed students from countries all around the world, including Germany and Thailand, as well as traveled throughout the USA. Under the leadership of President Riane Herlihy, Vice-President Jeanette Pollara, Treasurer Erin Smith, and Secretaries Christie Clarke and Caitlin Massey, this year's leaf-rake and Dance-A-Thon were successful fund raisers for the annual trip. After prior visits to Ohio, New York and North Carolina, this years exchange with Evergreen Park, Illinois is a fantastic end for the seniors four years with this club.

Other seniors who participate include Alli O'Leary, Kyle McAlpine, Mike Babin, Ashley Bargende, Jackie Cartier, Sarah Rathnam, and Erin Leary. ADL Anti Defamation League

The Anti-Defamation League at the High School has been devoted to opening up dialogue between students about tough issues since it began. Peer facilitators are trained to lead discussions about racism, heterosexism, classism, and other such pertinent issues. Because of their special role at HHS, facilitators share strong bonds strengthened by long meetings and training sessions, pizza dinners, and never-ending field trips. This year, the club expanded to participate in additional service-based activities such as can drives and leaf raking. Under the strong leadership of Mr. Jewett and Mrs. Krall, ADL continues to leave a strong legacy.

Improv Troupe

Facing a mixture of new and old faces, the Improv Troupe '04 came face-to-face with the challenge of producing funny faces and succeeded. As first time leaders of I.T., seniors Pat Campbell and Dan Perrault lead the way to make this year one of the most unique and memorable: IT-04, the year of schtick. From night to the close of the curtain on the final Improv Troupe show of the year, the cast produced hilarious moments. The troupe, including Russell O'Connell, Pat Campbell, Dan Perrault, Nat Elen, George Schwartz, Emily Belyea, Caitie Peterson, Courtney Donahue, and Mitch Gianoni, have come up with more funny moments than George Carlin can take a fist at.

Jazz Band

The Hingham High School Jazz Band enjoyed another swingin' year with blaring horns and a blazing rhythm section. Covering material from Duke Ellington to Mat Dahan, the band's repertoire continued to grow every Tuesday night. Solos featuring Nat Seelen, Sean Feeley, Russell O'Connell (among others) enjoyed the support Matt Dahan, Lou Arnos and Greg Settino's driving rhythm. This year, the band participated in the renowned North American Music Festival in New York City. The jazz band also played the Cohasset Art Show and numerous High School concerts. Keep swingin'!

The crew made the stage a safe place for all cast members with the efficient scene changes during shows. The antics among the crew never seemed to cease in the wings with the left side/strong side rivalry and the attempts to always one-up the originality of the curtain call.

The 2003-04 Hingham High School Chorus was comprised of over 100 musicians, from freshman to seniors. Lead by conductor Dr. Paul Cappers, they sang an impressive collection of styles, ranging from popular to spiritual. In their Major Works Concert they featured over a dozen soloists as they performed Haydn's Lord Nelson Mass. Their annual trip this year was to London, England, where they sang in various legendary sites, including Canterbury Cathedral. The student leaders were Matt Dahan (president), Stacey Epstein (vice president), Katie Gassert (secretary), Rachel Litvak (P.R.), Suzanne Connelly (librarian), and Pat Sullivan (manager).

Band

Over the past four years the Hingham High School concert band members have grown into a tight knit musical family. Under the direction of Mr. Wachoupe's swinging stick and pounding foot, the ensemble has come to know and love their music and fellow musicians. Whether rocking out to "Chorale and Shaker Dance" in sunny Williamsburg, screaming through a fifteen minute program in Philadelphia, or freezing our clarinets off in Montreal's botanical gardens, a hell of a good time was had by all. These dedicated students are led by president Paul D. Bottone, vice-president Katherine Ells, secretary Ashley Bargende, and treasurer Caitlin LeBlanc. However, nobody is as dedicated as conductor Phaedre Sassano, who, among other things, volunteers her time outside of school for the symphony, which combines the talents of both band and orchestra.

The Drama Club is a melting pot of performers. Lead by Co-presidents Pat Campbell and Katie Gassert, the drama club has wowed the crowd for years. This year, under the direction of John Higgins the club presented Crazy for You, starring Matt Dahan, Katie Gassert, Katie Boutilier, Nat Seelan, and Pat Campbell. They were supported by seniors Russell O'Connell, Dan Perrault, Elizabeth Ritchie, Lauren Hamel, Katelyn Carbone, Katie Donovan, Jasmine Plouffe, Lauren MacArthur, and Danielle Pastuzak, as by well as assistant director, Nicole Larned. Some said it was the best show put on in Hingham High history. The club has also been very successful with the bottle and can drive as well as the memorable all-nighter at the Drama Lock-In. The highlight of most students' week is not in class, or on the stage, or on the field, it's the Friday Show. Every day after school, Mr. Thaxter's TV Production students and many others work on pieces for the Friday Show. These videos entertain, inform, and educate the student body about happenings at HHS. Many videos also promote school events. Regular contributors to the show are Emma Lydon, Hawley Shea, John Paget, Jeff Gabriel, Tommy Curtis, Chris Cheu, Justin Weinstein, and students of TVP II.

An entirely student run publication, the Harborlight is created almost monthly by the joint efforts of twenty five reporters, photographers and editors from both the journalism class and after school staff. The staff is particularly proud of publishing its first summer issue for freshman orientation in August and of the assistance it provided Plymouth River Elementary School in getting their paper off the ground. Ms. Fennelly's sustained contribution as Advisor and the leadership of Jennifer Brady as Editor-in-Chief, Andrew Galvin as News Editor, Gizelle Robinson and Mary Sullivan as Graphics and Photography Editors and Suzy Barker and Vicki Lee as Features Editors have improved the Harborlight exponentially, from funding and distribution to coverage and quality.

"Under the Weeping Moon" by OPETH- Once again I've cried Unto the moon, That burning flame That has guided me Through all these years. With eyes of fire once unlit but now alive, This energy sparkling Like a morning star. Riding the fires of the northern gold I've searched the eye. I laugh under the weeping moon. I am the watcher in the skies Nor the emeralds know my mark Glisten to mark their presence. Searching... Finding. Burn the winter landmarks That said I was there. Burn the spirit of cold that travels through my soul.

When I think of HHS in the future, I hope my memories are not focused on typical things like Homecomings and proms, but on things like trips to the Cape and Killington, Scavenger hunts, rides on the T, planning for New Years, driving to UMASS... even trivial things like rollerblading or shopping at the outlets are worth recalling. Now is the time to look ahead to the future, but never forget the times and the people you left behind. *This was eighteen years ago, it was early morning, nearly two,
it was then I started to dream,
about what life has in store for you:*

*I dreamt that you'd graduated,
so you must have been about eighteen,
and you'd grown into such a fine woman,
In fact, one of the finest ever seen.*

*You were a terrific swimmer,
You'd swam to enormous lengths,
and your beauty and your character,
were only two of your many strengths.*

*You had such a gentle spirit,
so warm hearted and full of grace,
A quietly focused achiever,
a gentle determined look upon your face.*

*You were my 2nd child,
but still, I felt so wonderfully blessed,
to have any child is a blessing,
but it's so wonderful to have the very best.*

*Like most good things in life,
that dream it had to end,
and mothers don't have extraordinary daughters,
even less have their daughters as a very good friend.*

*But my friend and extraordinary Jen,
dreams they can come true,
and I no longer have to dream asleep,
because I'm awake and looking at you.*
